

Sanford Health Imagenetics

Sioux Falls, SD

Imagenetics is the first building in the nation to focus on bringing genetics into primary care. It houses genetic counselors, doctors and a genetic lab all under one roof. The form of the building serves its own set of functions, constructed to ease practical collaboration between genomics and primary care, fill the building with light and give patients a more intimate environment that stimulates conversation with their care providers, and provide a spacious home for education and labs.

Delivery Method:

Construction Manager at Risk

Size:

100,000 Sq. Ft.

GMP:

$27.0 Million

Final Cost:

$27.0 Million

Completion Date:

September 2017

Owner:

Sanford Health
Leroy Ask, Project Supervisor
(605) 333-6394

Architect:

HDR/KH
Debbie Schwartz, AIA / Keith Thompson, AIA
(402) 399-1436 / (605) 782-8731